

The City Legal Information Group

Bank of England Library Tour

Friday 24th March 2016, 2pm

Ever wanted to know what's behind those big walls at the Bank of England and discover what treasures their library might hide? Well then the City Legal Information Group has the tour for you.

Come join us for a guided tour of the Information Centre and Archive at the Bank of England, there will also be a look at some rare items of interest from the special collection and an opportunity to ask questions of the specialist Research staff at the Bank of England.

Numbers are strictly limited, so you will need to get in quick. Please note that this event is open to information professionals only.
